

I am not a Cushman descendant but have studied his life for about 10 years. Please tell me what level of interest in Cushman you have. I believe that he was far more important in the Mayflower voyage than he is given credit. I have been impressed with your web site as it includes source information. Are you from MIT?

"Thomas' will was written on 10 February 1585/6 and was proven on 12 February 1589/90 by his executrix (Archdeaconry of Canterbury, volume 47, folio 276). The Will of Thomas Cushman

"To be buried in the churchyard on Rolvinden. To the poor men's box of Rolvinden 2s. To my son Rychard Couchman . . ." - Rychard not listed as a child.

Robert Cushman wrote The Cry of A Stone about 1619. This was an important Pilgrim book.
