1. Deacon Thomas<sup>1</sup> LYNDE died on 30 December 1671<sup>[1]</sup>. Based on the estimated birth of his eldest child in 1615, he was probably born circa 1590. The migration information for he and his family has been lost to time, but he was in Charlestown, Suffolk co., MA by 1634/5 and was a Maltser by trade<sup>[2]</sup>. Thomas was admitted to the Charlestown church with his wife on 4d:12m(February):1634/5 and, as seen by his title, remained a leader in that church<sup>[2]</sup>.

In 1637, Lynde owned a 10 acre lot on the Mystic River side of Charlestown, Suffolk co., MA. In the 1638 Charlestown Book Of Possessions, his real estate holdings totaled the following 14 lots: his "house, malt-house, &c." along with a half acre of land in the South Field, along the southwest side of Mill Hill, next to the Charles River -- the Garden Land adjacent to this lot was known as "Malt Lane"; 3 acres in the South Field; 4 acres in the East Field, next to the Mystic River; 2 more acres in the East Field; 3.5 acres in the Line Field, next to the Cambridge (now Somerville), Middlesex co., MA line; 2 acres of meadow & pasture, location not specified; 10 acres in the Mystic Field; 10 acres of woods, lot #35, in the Mystic Field -- this lot measured 80 poles by 20 poles; 3 acres of meadow; 8 cow commons -- 7 of these fell to him "in dividend" and 1 he bought from James Matthews; 2 more acres in the Mystic Field which he bought from James Matthews; lot #26 comprising 35 acres in the Mystic Field -- measuring 100 poles long; 80 acres in the Rock Field and 2 acres of arable land in Line Field, by the "Mystic weare"<sup>[2]</sup>.

In addition, Lynde bought and sold much real estate in Charlestown, Suffolk co., MA over the years. In 1650, he bought 5 acres in the South Field, alongside the Charles River and 7 cow commons located near Menotomy (now Somerville), Middlesex co., MA. This deed was recorded in 1658. In 1650/1, he bought a half acre of land from L. Dowse and a lot from John Baker. In 1656, he sold 2 acres "of town, commons, next [to the] burying hill" to John March. This deed was also recorded in 1658. In 1656/7, he was the first on the list with 19 cow commons entered. In 1657, he sold 1 acre in the East Field, lying within Charlestown Neck, again to John March. He and March made a straight up real estate exchange in 1657: Lynde gave 2 acres in East Field, with a cart highway to March in exchange for a house, garden and one acre of land. That same year, he sold 2 acres "had of Leach" to W. Bachelder. In 1661, he sold a cow common to N. Rand. This deed was recorded in 1680. He bought a wood-lot & other property from John Myrick in 1658 & 1661/2. He bought 1 acre from Thomas Hale, "et. al" in 1662. He sold 5 acres to N. Hutchingson in 1664. This deed was recorded in 1668. That same year he bought 2 acres from Joseph Stowers. In 1670, He sold a half acre of land to I. Balcom. Finally, he sold 8 poles of land to R. Jenner in 1670<sup>[2]</sup>.

Thomas Lynde's will was written on 21 December 1671 and probated on 2d:12m(February):1671/2<sup>[2]</sup>. It was devised with the following bequests:

\ To his third wife, Rebecca, he left the lot that he had bought from Goodman Stowers in Charlestown, Suffolk co., MA and "the house that Morgan [Richard Rose Morgan] dwells in". However, a piece of land 2 poles wide at the end of the property, next to Brigden's land was to be used for a highway to Lynde's other land. She also received the servants "Negro Peter and girl Nan", two cow commons and the hay-lot by lands owned by Pierce & Welch. She also received use of half of the property for as long as she lived<sup>[2]</sup>.*

\ To his son, Joseph, he left the "house, &c.", with the provision that his widow Rebecca had the right to use 1/3 of the orchard adjacent to this house & lot. Joseph also received the lot "bought of widow Nash", 6 acres "toward Cold Harbor"; the "stinted common" near the town of Nottomy (Menotomy, now Somerville), Middlesex co., MA and the wood-lot "bought of John Mical [Mitchell]"<sup>[2]</sup>.*
