452. Allen⁸ NEWHALL, Jr. (Allen⁷, Hanson⁶, Joseph⁵, Samuel⁴, Thomas³⁻², not known¹) On 15 June 1815 Allen married Martha ADAMS, in Lynn, Essex co., MA^[233].

464. Michal⁸ NEWHALL (Jedidiah⁷, Joseph⁶⁻⁴, Thomas³⁻², not known¹) was born on 16 January 1777 in Lynn, Essex co., MA^[49,266]. Michal died in Fremont, Rockingham co., NH on 12 January 1827; she was 49. Her name is also spelled Michel, Michael, Michah and Michail on occasion and birth records^[267]. On her son Oliver's Death Record, her name is given as "Michel Brown" ^[268] - clearly mixing up Michal Newhall and Allen's second wife Betsey Brown in a rather interesting combination. She is Waters #728.

On 7 February 1793 when Michal was 16, she married Allen NEWHALL^[265], son of Hanson NEWHALL & Hepzibah BREED, in Lynn, Essex co., MA^[210,233]. They lived on Market Street in Lynn until they moved to Fremont, New Hampshire. They were in New Hampshire by 11 October 1818, which is the date of Michal's letter home.

Two letters from Michal Newhall are extant and in the possession of Alan M. Hall of Orr's Island, ME. A transcription follows:

Epping [, New Hampshire] October the 11th 1818

Dear Children

It Seems(?) to be for long Since i Saw you I must rite a few lines although attended with a litel(?) expense thiese lines(?) leaves our famely well. But my head akes – so bad I have been a bed almost all day. I am very much afflicted with it Ever since I went to Lynn(?) likewise rumitisaism(?) But my appetite is good I due any work. Lydia has been done work for me 5 weeks She has kiepit(?) haus too George lives a mile above mr Hoyets they have got som New ourneture [furniture?] Lydia has been finding a Hundred pare of shoes for mr Mathwes T & G [Timothy? or Thomas? and George] has been making them

I could get along very well at present if I could due my washin without getting Sick. I have heard 2 days for two week after I came from Lynn I was a(?)moust crasey(?) with the Headake and other Complants & had my work to due at the same tim I did not dare to tell any one just how I felt But thought I should be crasey if my bad feelings continued for I felt somewhat agatated in mind about ma[n]y thing Sometimes I ame like many of old encombered with my tarering(?) and trubeled about many things of a worldly nature if I could live a litel free(?) from Care I could enjoy more health I hope Timothy will come to Lynn but wee can have work for my Gredely(?) som time but no good place to work in winter. Due rite to T [Timothy?] before long if he dont come I want Thams [Thomas?] two if he due enough for you or others to pay for Sculing a evings or his board this winter I hope others will come if Martha dount mr Newhall will come down at thanksgiving mr N & I expect to goe a journey next week to New Salam and Sand[wich] & Chester [all towns in New Hampshire] I have been to portsmouth [New Hampshire] & to exetor [Exeter, NH] of late. But two but litel Profit it is tranform work I got cotten for any beastick and some nese...s things the last time I expect to goe to market from this place.

I often think I could take much comfort in Lynn if I lived thier with my friends my Children and acquaintances But if it never is my lot again may I be contented in my destination. But if I can live in some Christian land whare the peopel is moralized and think of living for another would it will be very pleasing to mr Newhall and me. I have had some very agreabel hours as will as dull ones Since i was at Lynn, the quarterly Meeting was very good mr. othemion(?) preaches hear once a month & is a verry correct good speaker the peopel Flaock to geather but not all to hear the work for they dont lik to Set still On any acount I often think I should like to stay in the country but on others I cant baer the thought. mr Nichels I want you to Inquir the Price of Land in the new raod that leeds from John M to Breeds and on some of Joel Breeds if you need not let peopel know your end of enquiaring if old mr with[...?...] should be to tell at any time rite about it. Mr New/ thinks a litel of coming of a place should present that he likes with some land or he could build I think we must look all round and try to accomidate us in our old age if wee can but part of what wee now have But I will no dwell on this them any longer It Pestere my Brains. I wish I could gave(?) it upon(?) wee must commit our care to hyer Pwers and trust in a all wise God to direct in temporal as well as in Spiritual things

Wee had but a Short But agreeabel visit from the Lynn friends mr N was very Sick a few days but is torebel [terrible?] well now if mr Tilley comes to Lynn dont be persuaded to take his Boy he used to Bad tricks i can tell you more the Boy is tracxtabol no dout But wount due to trsut I have Cake(?) for Allen(?) Send the uper[...?...] fir Mifs Rundlast(?)

I want you to rite as Sune as you can give my live(?) Jedidiah & wife tell them they must not think them Selves slited by me becuse I did not vist them I was very Fancy(?) it happend so did not I entended(?) to have Spent some ours their the afternoon I came to Salam [Salem, MA] But Thomas would drive us and would come that way I should like to have J rite to me give my respects to Men(?) folks Abbigall Mrgin was mared some time in May to a good Husband a farmer 3 children living at Kittrey [Kittery, ME]Below Portsmouth Has a Prospect of living well hir Health is not very good yet his child(?) is with hir after mr Salley receive a later from you he will com excuse my ritting I ame in hast I Close by Sending my Self your ever dear Parents
