

Nevermore

Words & Music:
Freddie Mercury (Queen)

There's no living in my life anymore.
The seas have gone dry and the rain stopped falling.
Please don't you cry anymore. Can't you see?
Listen to the breeze, whisper to me, please.
Don't send me to the path of nevermo-----re.
Even the valleys below,
Where the rays of the sun were so warm and tender,
Now haven't anything to grow. Can't you see?
Why did you have to leave me?
Why did you deceive me?
You send me to the path of nevermore
When you say you didn't love me anymo-----re
Ah, ah! Nevermore, nevermore.
