Washington Waddle

Words & Music: Theodore Morse

I love finding out the story of tunes I learned as a "children's song". This was a popular song written in 1911 (I think!) and was used in the 1927 movie "The Police Quartette". I have always sung it a capella (here is an .mp3), but have sussed out the chords for you.

С G7 С Let's all go down to Washington, D.C. Ba-dum, ba-dum. С G7 That's where they play the sweetest ragtime melody. Ba-dum, ba-dum. (Let's all begin with lesson number one. С (G7 And you waddle and you waddle 'til the day is done. G It's the Washington Waddle, get the tune in your noddle. G7 G Let your feet have fun! G D7 G7 С Come on and waddle with me, my honey, waddle with me D Like a ragtime ship on a ragtime sea. G7 Waddle...waddle...waddle...waddle... D7 G7 C G Come on and waddle with me. C G7 С Ba-dum. Ba-dum. [Pah!]
