

Daisy Bell (A Bicycle Built For Two)

Words & Music:
Harry Dacre

Like so many other old tunes, most people only knew the chorus to this song. Luckily, once again, the fabulous Gunther Anderson provides the full verses & chords for this Victorian chestnut.

C                              G7                              C
There is a flower within my heart -- Daisy!    Daisy!
C                              G7                              C                              G7                              C
Planted one day by a glancing dart; planted by Daisy Bell!
Am                              E7                              Am                              Dm7                              G7                              C
Whether she loves me or loves me not; sometimes it's hard to tell.
Am                              Em                              Am                              D7                              G                              G7
Yet I am longing to share the lot of the beautiful Daisy Bell

CHORUS:

C                      C7                      F                              Dm7                      C
Daisy!    Daisy!    Give me your answer true.
F                      C                      Am                              D7                      G7
I'm half crazy all for the love of you!
F                              C                              F
It won't be a stylish marriage,
C                      Am                      F                              G7
I can't afford a carriage.
C                              G7                      C                      G7
But, you'll look sweet upon the seat
C                      G7                      C
Of a bicycle built for two.

We will go "tandem" as man and wife - Daisy!    Daisy!
Ped'ling away down the road of life; I and my Daisy Bell!
When the road's dark, we can both despise policemen and lamps, as well.
There are bright lights in the dazzling eyes of beautiful Daisy
Bell

CHORUS:

I will stand by you in "wheel" or woe - Daisy!    Daisy!

You'll be the bell(e) which I'll ring you know; sweet little Daisy
Bell
You'll take the lead in each trip we take.
Then if I don't do well,
I will permit you to use the brake;
My beautiful Daisy Bell!
